

IFFIm Newsletter - July 2022

IFFIm issues £250 million vaccine bond

In its first transaction in 2022, IFFIm returned to the UK bond market with £250 million 3-year notes. The vaccine bonds will provide Gavi with funding to support its core childhood immunisation programmes, which have been highly effective in cutting child mortality in half since 2000.

Read more

The boat doctors vaccinating in India's Sundarbans

The Sundarbans - 10,000 kilometres of mangrove forest in the Bay of Bengal - are home to some of India's most marginalised people. Health workers are taking to the water to bring lifesaving COVID-19 and routine vaccines to the people.

Latest articles

Lesotho mothers welcome the reintroduction of HPV vaccine

Cervical cancer rates in Lesotho are among the highest in the world. Lesotho relaunched its HPV vaccination programme in April, after a seven-year lapse. IFFIm has disbursed US$ 66 million to help Gavi immunise children globally against HPV.

Read more

Kenya pushes back yellow fever outbreaks

Yellow fever cases are on the rise again, driven by an interruption in vaccinations during the pandemic. Countries affected are responding swiftly, controlling outbreaks through vastly improved diagnostic testing and an emphasis on yellow fever immunisations.

Read more

IFFIm Board meets in Geneva

IFFIm's Board of Directors convened in Geneva to chart the future of vaccine bonds, while Gavi's Board voted on several priorities moving forward.

Read more

"Follow the Money" study cites IFFIm as success story

An economist at the University of Cambridge cites IFFIm's financial mechanism as an example of an impact bond that comes out on top when quantitative methods are used to track flows of money and measure risks.

Read more